

Description	N/A	✓	Notes
1. Review the architects' expertise and relevant experience;
2. Evaluate their management approach, design personnel and consultants;
3. Compare different approaches to the design process, interpretation or understanding of the specific requirements of the project and compatibility with the expectations;
4. Explore issues relevant to the particular project, without being compromised by pre-conceived design solutions.			