

Description	N/A	✓	Notes
1. During the installation and erection of work, the architect checks the procedures being used by reviewing:
a. specifications
b. notations on shop drawings
c. agreed-to instructions and correspondence
2. The architect reports any concerns about erection procedures for structural work to the structural engineer immediately			